Cassandra started oil painting again in 2006 after placing it aside for many years. She always had a passion for art as far back as her memory goes. Cassandra enjoys painting all kinds of subject matter. Most recently Cassandra has been inspired by her daughter (Shea). Shea's photographs have inspired Cassandra to share her interpretation on canvas. Cassandra stated that Shea has the ability to capture on camera what is seen through the eyes of an artist.

Cassandra is a member of "The Society of Artist" at Artists on Main in Goodlettsville, TN under the direction of David Gillihan, Art Instructor. He is a gifted artist who helped her develop and enhance her style and painting technique to become a professional artist.

As a member of Artists on Main Society of Artists, her work has been displayed at the following galleries:

Goodlettsville City Hall, Goodlettsville, TN, Strolling through the Arts, Springfield, TN, Chocolate Expressions, Nashville, TN, where she did a "live demo" for the grand opening of the gallery. The Student Life Center at Vanderbilt University (currently has nine paintings in the Neurosurgery exam rooms at Vanderbilt Medical Center , 100 for 100 Art Show for Artist on Main, Goodlettsville, TN, Goodlettsville Arts and Antiques Festival, Goodlettsville, TN and the 10th Street Gallery in St. Louis, Missouri.
