

ELEVATED ADVISING: FACULTY AS CHAMPIONS OF STUDENT SUCCESS"

Mrs. Melody Cottingham, Assistant Director of Assessment, CADENCE

Dr. Alexis Gaston Heaston, Assistant Professor
Faculty Liasion, CADENCE

ABSTRACT

Advising is a collaborative partnership between students and advisors, focusing on student-centered and goal-driven outcomes.

Interactions are dynamic, inclusive, and holistic, considering students' academic, career, social, and life interests and goals

Why CADENCE?

The QEP, entitled CADENCE, promotes a holistic, integrative approach to advising, which is central to its mission. We aim to prepare advisors to deliver consistent, individualized guidance that integrates academic and career planning—key components of student success.

Today's Agenda

Introduction

Purpose

Responsibilities

Process

Expectations

Communication

CADENCE

Key Resources

Q&A

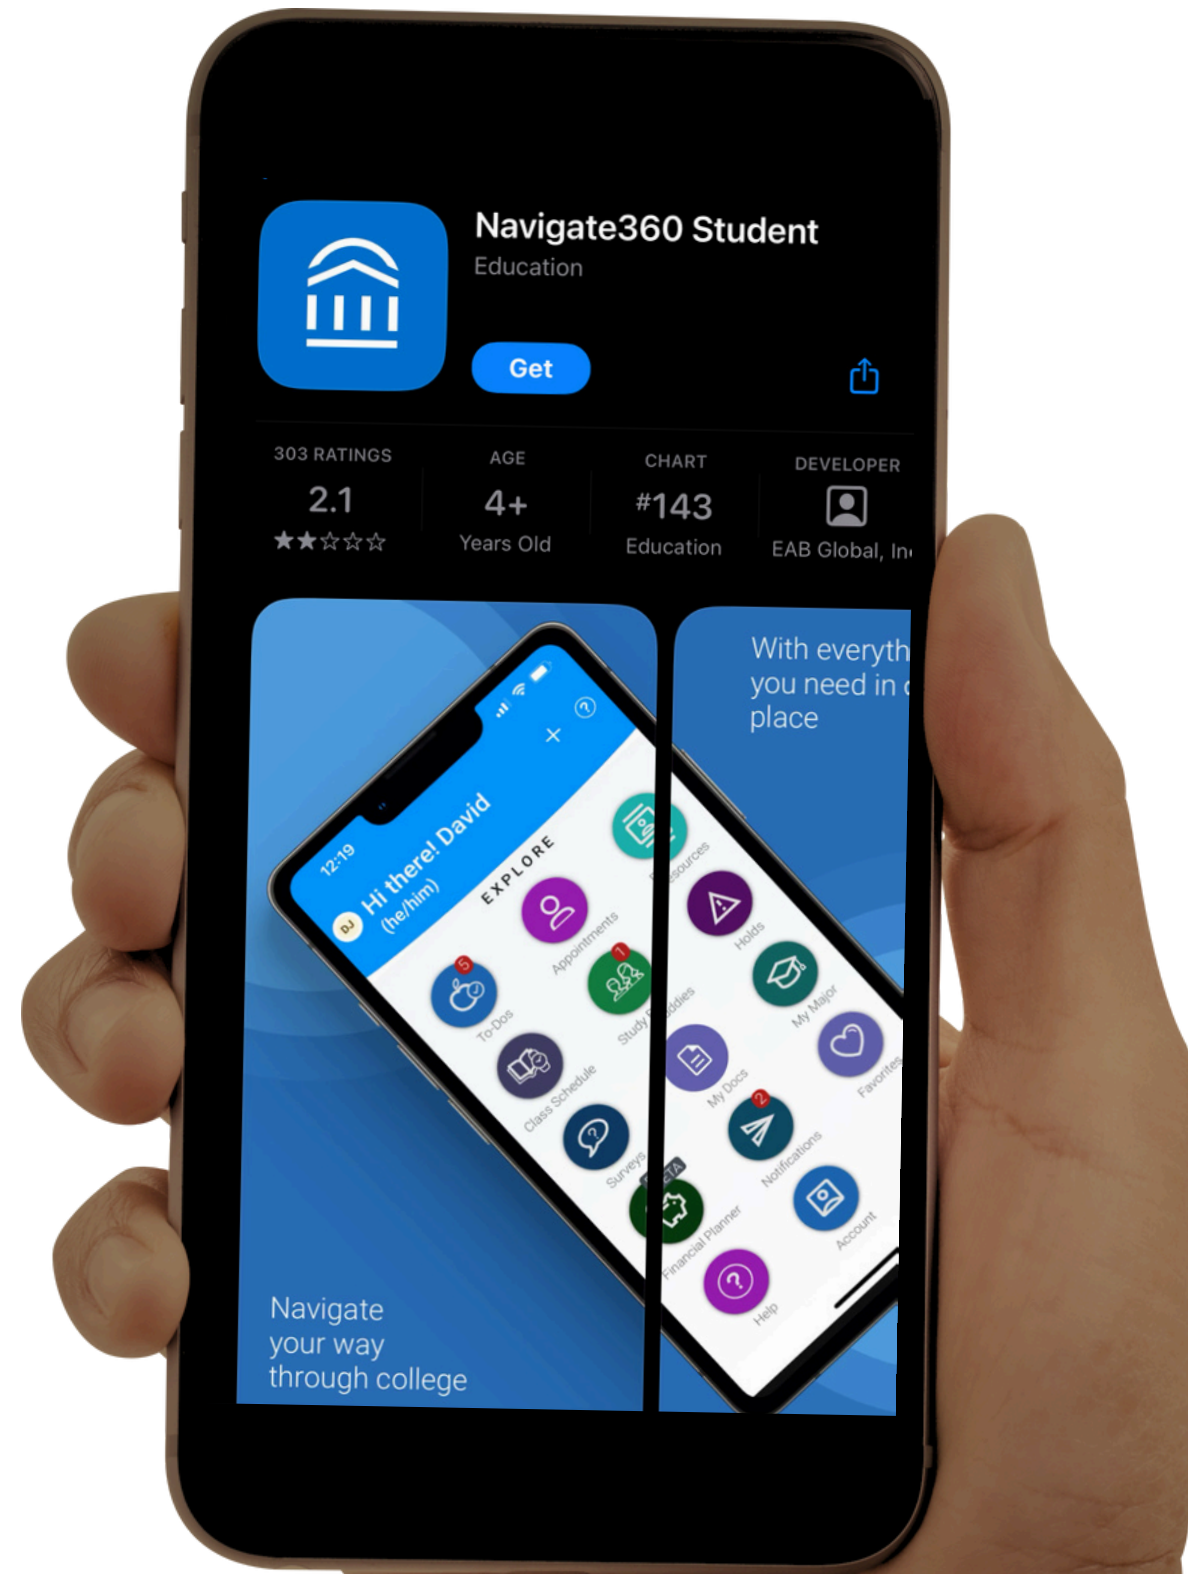

Purpose of Advising

- Faculty as Key Supporters of student academic success
- Enhancing student retention and progression
- Helping students navigate academic requirements and personal goals
- Advising is a collaborative partnership between students and advisors, focusing on student-centered and goal-driven outcomes.

Roles & Responsibilities of Faculty Advisors

Guiding Students

Academic & Career

Institutional Resources

The Advising Process

Pre-Planning

Prepare for the conversation --“lesson plan” for the interaction

Initial Meeting

Get to know your advisee. Interest, aspirations, goals, and background

Continuous Check-ins

Regular check-ins with students to ensure they are on track and making necessary adjustments.

Documentation

Documenting meetings within EAB Navigate and action plans to provide ongoing support.

Student Expectations

Conceptual

This provides the context for advising, covering essential theories and ideas that guide the advising process, such as understanding the role of advising in higher education, relevant theories, and advising strategies.

Informational

Keep a pulse on the campus. Be aware of updated relevant information, forms, documents, and links of interest to advisees.

Relational

This focuses on the interpersonal skills required to effectively communicate and engage with students, ensuring the information and concepts are conveyed clearly and meaningfully.

Tennessee State University | 2024

Other University Advising Resources

Online Forms

https://www.tnstate.edu/records/online_forms.aspx

Advising Calendar

https://www.tnstate.edu/academic_programs/academic_calendar.aspx

CADENCE Framework

II. Comprehensive Advising Resources

CADENCE ensures comprehensive, accessible advising resources to support student success in planning and engagement. It includes regular updates and new tools like timelines to guide student progress.

III. Technology for Individualized Advising and Career Development

CADENCE maximizes the benefits of EAB Navigate, Suitable, and Handshake for holistic advising, educational planning, and career profiles. It ensures students can access all platforms from a single online location.

Resources

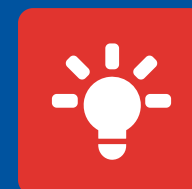

EAB Navigate – Advising Platform

The ability to monitor student's progress, review student documents, and electronic record of advising

Handshake– Career Profiles

Connecting Students with Departmental Events, Clubs, and Co-Curricular Activities
--Connected to Career Development Center

Advising Tools & Resources

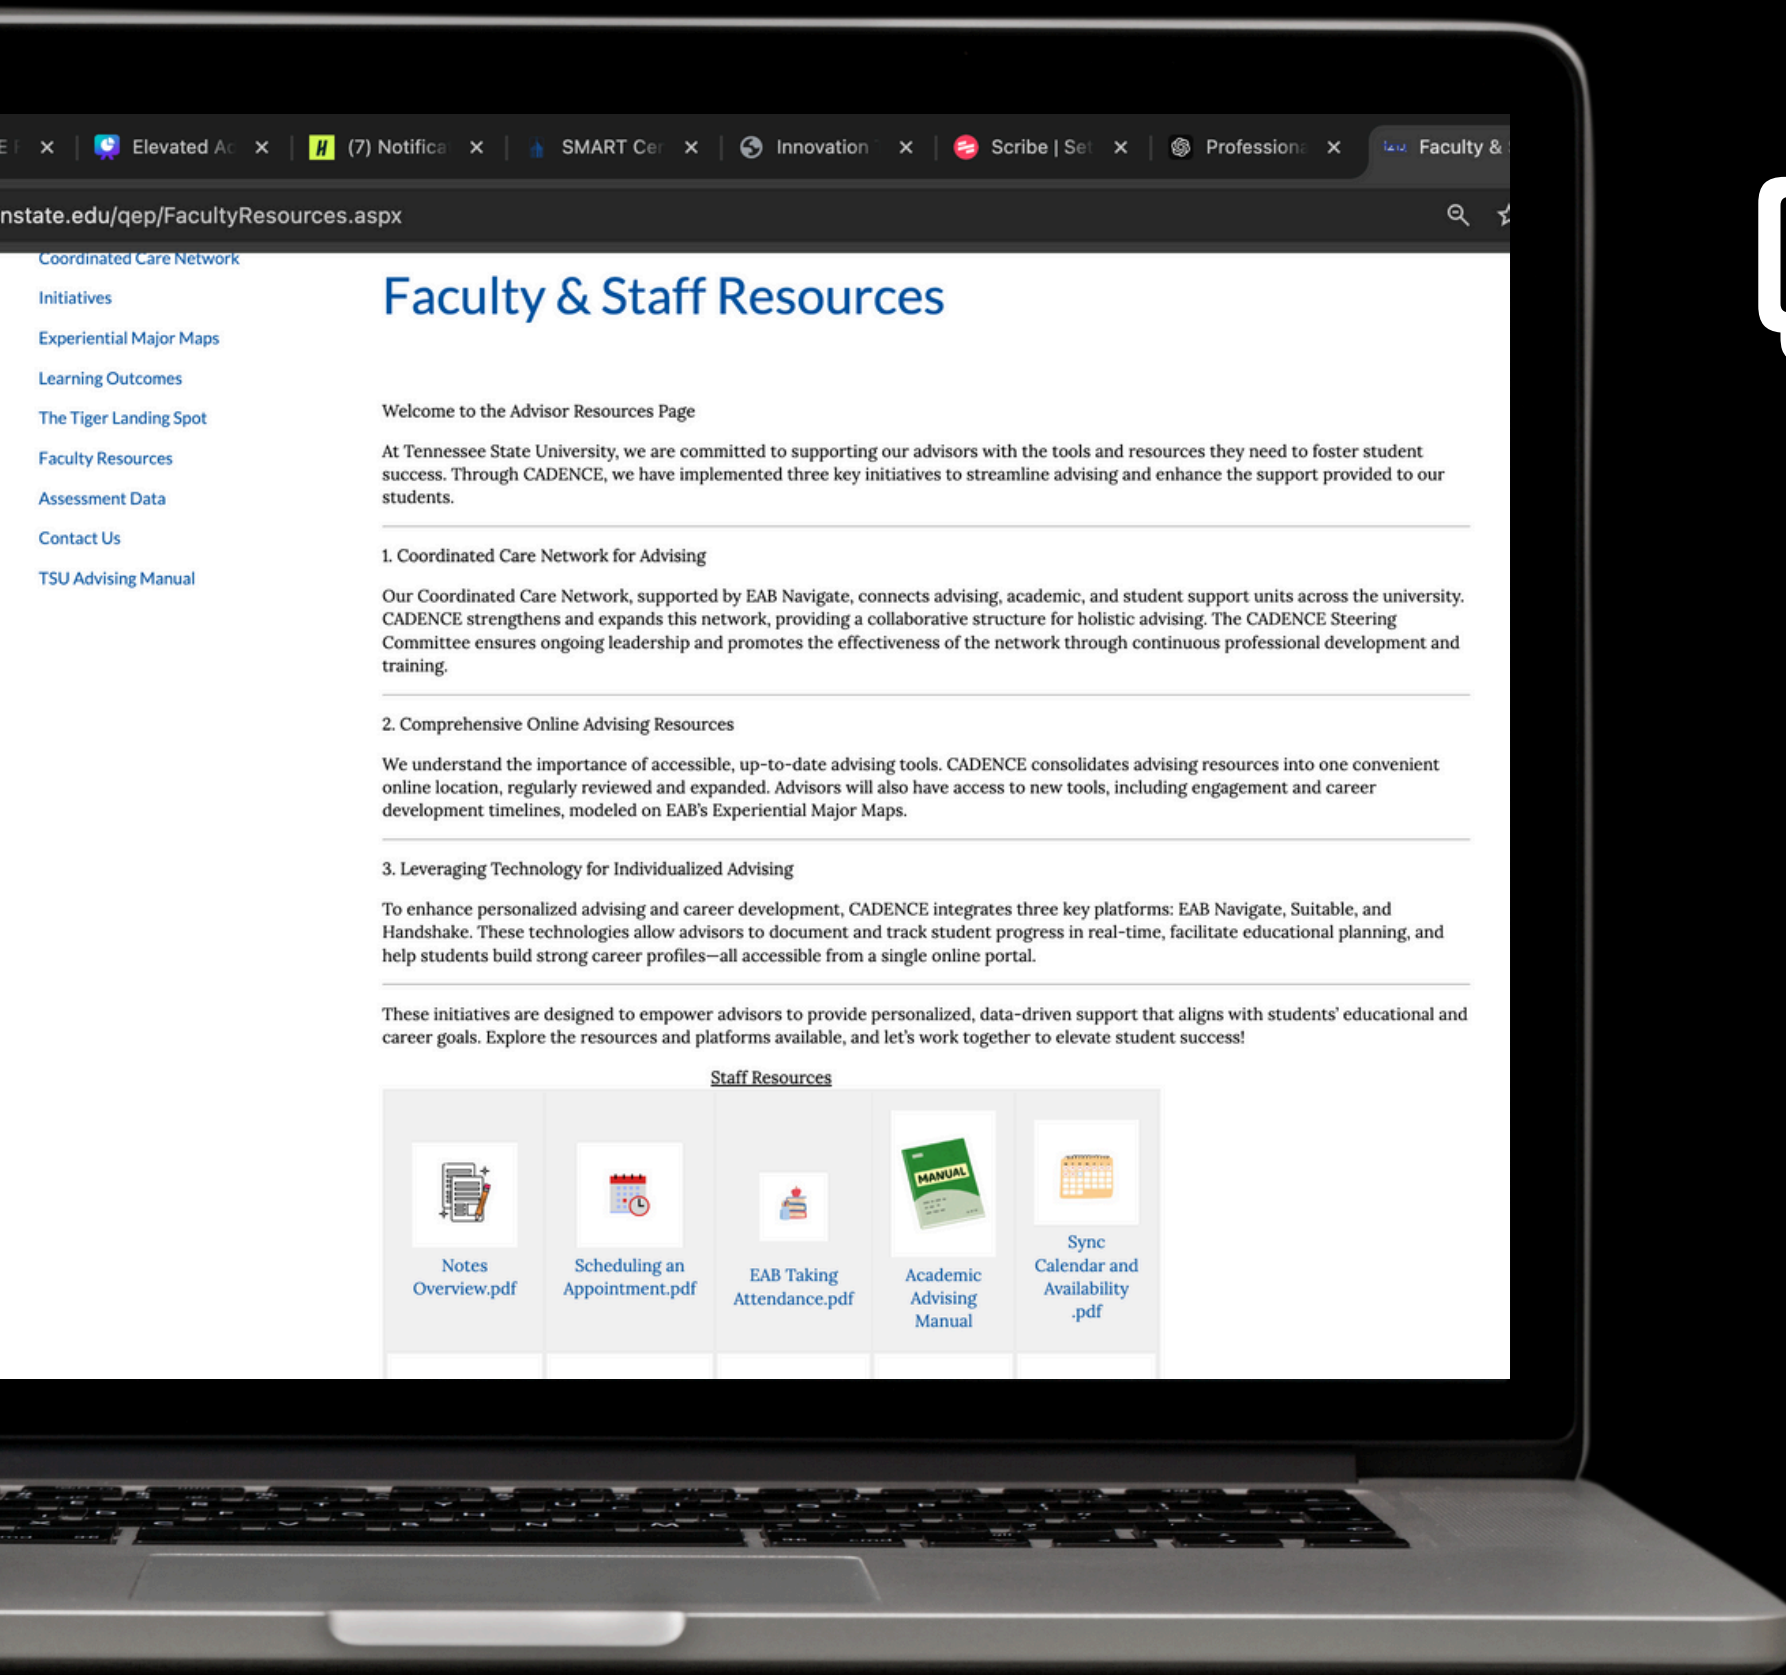

TSU Advising Training Model
e-Tutorials & Microcredentialing

QEP Website

A one-stop website presenting updated and new advising and academic success resources in a single online location.

QEP'S NEW RESOURCES

Advising Guide & Checklist

Contains consistent information and structures conversations with students. Serves as a reminder of important date, policy changes, helpful hints, and talking points.

Advising Manual

Focuses on the informational and conceptual framework of advising and coaching

Experimental Major Maps

These maps identify key steps and transition points in onboarding, matriculation, and program completion. In addition to curricular information

NACADA Website

Mini Trainings, Micro-Credentials, and More...

- First Generation Student
- Transfer Student
- Advising in an Online Setting

BEST PRACTICES

- Clear Expectations with students
- Encourage Early Course Registration to avoid conflicts
- Leverage Technology
 - EAB Navigate
 - Digital Resources
 - NACADA website
- Refer students when necessary, Counseling Center, Career Development Center, Tutoring
- Attend Advising Training Modules as they are released

FINAL THOUGHTS

Importance of Faculty Involvement in Student Success
Recap Tools Available
Questions & Discussion

THANK YOU SO MUCH!

Mrs. Melody Cottingham
mcottin1@tnstate.edu

Dr. Alexis Heaston
aheaston@tnstate.edu

Sub-Committee on Advisement in Support of the QEP,
Meets every 3rd Tuesday of the month

Mrs. Melody Cottingham
Assistant Director of Assessment, CADENCE
mcottin1@tnstate.edu

Dr. Alexis Heaston
CADENCE Faculty Coordinator
Assistant Professor, College of Public Health, Health Administration & Health Sciences
aheaston@tnstate.edu